(a) This writing is about my best friend, Mai. We go to the same school, and we've been together for three years. (b) Mai is very pretty. She has short black hair and big brown eyes. She is clever and hard-working, and she is also very funny. She makes jokes, and we all laugh. She loves reading and writing short poems. (c) I like being with her. We often do our homework together, and she helps me a lot. I also like her because she knows a lot about astronomy, and we can chat about it for hours. At the moment we're making a space minibook. We're doing a lot of searching on the internet. (d) I hope that in the future we'll still be best friends.

3 Read the following passage and decide if the sentences are true (T) or false (F). (1.0 pt)

The colours you paint the rooms in your house can make you more comfortable. The following colours can help you to eat, sleep, study and relax in your own home.

The dining room

The colour orange can make you feel hungrier at mealtime. It also encourages more interesting talk between family members.

The bedroom

The perfect colour for your bedroom is blue. It is a very relaxing colour, and can make you feel happier and more positive when you wake up in the morning.

The study

Yellow is a good colour for this room: it makes you feel happier and helps you to think. It also makes dark spaces a little brighter.

The living room

The perfect colour for your living room is pink. Don't use such colours as red, purple, and black because they don't help you to relax.

1. Orange in the dining room makes people eat and talk more.
2. Blue is not a good colour for a bedroom.
3. A yellow study helps you to work better.
4. You feel relaxed in a red or black living room.
5. Different colours are good for different rooms in your house.

To: Phong@webmail.com
Subject: My neighbourhood

Dear Phong,

I'm sorry I couldn't write to you earlier because I was very busy. Now, we're staying in a small hotel near a shopping area in District 10. Near my hotel, there's a cinema, a post office, a supermarket and some cafés. There are some big shops at the end of the street. It's also very noisy here because there's always a lot of traffic, day and night.

In my home town, I live in a quieter street. There are some small shops, a school and a post office in my neighbourhood but there isn't a park or a cinema. The streets are narrower but they are cleaner and there isn't so much traffic. The air is much fresher, too.

Love,
Nam
